

WAYS TO GIVE:

PUBLICLY TRADED SECURITIES

Readily marketable securities, such as those traded on a U.S. stock exchange, will be accepted by the Foundation. The Foundation will sell such securities upon receipt unless exemption granted by the Gifts Review Committee.

Gift credit will equal the value of the securities' average of high and low prices on the date the shares are received by the Foundation. The value of the mutual funds shares will be the closing price on the day of transfer.
