

Chief Development Officer – Work Remotely(Negotiable)

Alpha Gamma Rho Fraternity

Help take an established organization's fundraising efforts to the next level. Lead, create and direct an effective fund-raising program for Alpha Gamma Rho (AGR) Fraternity, a professional-social fraternity with members sharing a common bond within the agriculture industry. AGR currently has 72 chapters and 1 colony and has initiated more than 70,000 brothers since its founding in 1904.

Seeking an experienced and highly motivated development professional with a minimum of 5 years of fundraising experience.

Oversee the donor relations program and manage the fundraising initiatives including the annual appeal, major gifts, planned giving program, capital campaigns, local chapter scholarship and housing endowments. Develop relationships with potential major donors and manage and coordinate with AGR staff, boards, and volunteer leaders.

The AGR headquarters is based in Kansas City, MO. Enjoy the option to work remotely from a home-based office. Approximately 50% nationwide travel is required, including evenings and some weekends.

Required:

- Minimum Bachelor's Degree
- Proven track record and 5 years or more of experience in building and implementing successful fundraising campaigns
- Familiarity with fundraising communication technologies
- Excellent written, interpersonal and verbal communication skills and networking abilities

Preferred:

- Agricultural and/or AGR background is a bonus
- Knowledge of Greek life is a plus
